MAIL, ONE YEAR,

This all happened before nine A. M. Our later dispatches state that we have taken 10,000, prisoners, which we doubt, although it may be true, and we hope it is. The news on the whole is decidedly cheering. Lee would turn and flee to some other may know who it is that is saying this or strong position, if Grant would only stop that, to bury his dead, and give him the opportunity. There is an improbably story affont that Leo has asked a cossation o hostilities long enough to bury his dead that Grant roplies a la Fort Donelson that he hasn't time to bury his own dead, and that he intends to move immediately upon his works. If Lee asks any such favor it is only to gain time, a dodge that will not blind so shrewd a general as the hero of Vicksburg. Anothor rumor comes to us by the way of 'Philadelphia, that Lee has surrendered with 40,000 men. The story is of course a silly canard. Secretary Stanton sends word to Gov. Lowis that a dispatch has been received from Grant in which he says: "We have now ended the sixth day of very heavy fighting. The result to this time is much in our favor. Our losses enemy. I think the losses of the enemy are greater than ours. We have taken over five thousand prisoners in buttle, whilst they have taken from us but few except stragglers. I propose to fight it out on this line if it takes all summer."

The Government will not be slow in seconding every effort of the heroic Commander in Chief.

If there he may truth in the exploits said to have been accomplished by General Sheridan, it must have a most important self against the attacks of Butler, is probless as 1st Lieutenant, and Moses DeWitt ably without any foundation in fact. Lea as 2d Lieutenant. has no troops to spare.

We have every reason to believe that another general engagement took place on yesterday, of which we should get a synopsis in our special report at ten o'clock this

GENERAL ALEXANDER S WEBB who fell in the first days' battle on the Rapidan, was a young man of great promise. It is said that he contributed more to the success of our army at the battle of Gettysburg than any other man of his rank. He was in the very thickest of the fight. handled his men with extraordinary ability and coolness, and escaped death by a miracle, only to meet it among the first in the bloody work of the present year.

Gen. Webb was not more than twentysix years of age. He was a member of the Episcopal Church, and was a noble specimen of a Christian gentleman. In the highest degree generous, genial, court? cous, truthful, brave, modest, of stainless honor, ever true to duty, he displayed the finest type of manhood. No nobler youth. no truer soldier, has fallen in this war.

Gen. Webli was the youngest son of James Watson Webba well-known editor of Now York.

On the eve of the morning of the Army of the Potomac, Gen. Sizel made a speech in Mar.insburg, in which he is reported to have said: "The war has gone on three years; and it is a great disgrace to the north, with all its superiority of mon and m mey, that the robels have not been conquered. I am now here, where I was two years ago; only think of it! We maich to-morrow to light the greatest General of the age, the rebel Robert Lee," At this remark the General was hissed from some. He replied, "You may hiss, but he is a great General, although a rebel."

The telegraph announced the death of Col Frederick A. Bonidman, 4th Wis. mounted infantry, who was shot while on a scouting expedition.

He was a nophew of J. A. Noonan, Esq. of Milwaukee, and an estimable young man. His body is to be brought home for interment.

Washington, May 12 .- Dispatches from the Army of the Potomac, dated Wellington battle field. Ifth, says probably the most desperate fighting of the past several days took place on Tuesday. Believing the enemy to have sent a great part of his troops to Richmond, an advance along the entire line was determined upon. At an early hour the 2d corps having the right of the line had crossed the Potomax the evening previous, and with but slight opposition. M .- World's special .- Our army this morning was engaged in the fiercest of its battles, and is pressing on to victory. After the sanguinary but generally unsuc-A feeble demonstration against our right was repulsed. This morning a reconnoisance was made on our right to force the enemy's left. It was intended to assault the enemy's right in force. A pertion of the 6th corps and Birney's division of Hancock's corps first intended to undertake this work, which was afterwards abandoned.

In the forencon two companies on the left of the 6th corps commenced driving some sharpshooters from their position in a house commanding a partial view of our lines, killing and capturing several of their number.

In the afternoon rain fell to some extent, continuing until after dark, laying the dust, cooling the air and raising the spirits of our troops. Fires were built and suppers cooked. Bands began playing along our lines, and undisturbed by the flank move was being made on our right, enemy's shells our soldiers ate heartily and rested. The enemy had no ammunition Meanwhile news arrived towards evening that Sheridan had penetrated to the vicinity of Beaver Dam, on the Orange Court House Railroad; tore up about 12 miles of track, captured a rebel supply train, and recaptured about 300 of our men taken prisoners at Old Wilderness battle. This news so inspirited our men wherever it was known, that cheers upon cheers and rejoicing greated the announcement, and during the night arrangements were pushed for an attack on our side. This morning the enemy was seen pushing troops towards our right, and creeting an abattis in frontiof Hancock's troops.

blind to the real intention of the enemy. It was therefore anticipated. After midnight the 2d corps, Hancock's, pushed to the left of the rifle-pits, the corps of Wright's between that and Burnside's command; and our left on the Spottsylvania road. At 4:30 this morning Hancock attacked

Gen. Johnson himself was taken prisoner. The assault continued till nearly the whole division was captured, and other troops amounting to 10,000 men.

LATER, 11 O'CLOCK .- A dispatch has arrived this moment announcing the capture of 7000 prisoners and 30 guns. The battle still progressing. The 6th corps on the left of the 2d has moved into battle and are pressing the enemy. Warren's 5th corps moved up to its support on the right The battle is becoming general. Nearly all our artillery is engaged, and the clangor of guns, whistle of grape and solid shot, roar of musketry and explosion of the enemies, shells fill the air with awful noise. Shells burst around me while I write.

LATER, 12 O'CLOCK .- It is just now reported that Hancock has carried the right. flank of the enemy below Spottsylvania Court House, and is pressing on. The battle everywhere is overwhelmingly in our favor. Terrific firing has just commenced on our left near Grant's headquarters. Gen. Wright is slightly wounded, but still in command of his corps.

WASHINGTON, May 12 .- our army has been heard from six miles beyond Spottsylvania Court House. We fought again resterday and drove the enemy most gallantly, capturing large numbers of prisoners and guns, and several general officers are among the killed.

IN THE FIELD, 5th corps, May 12, 7 A. M.—Herald's Correspondent says Hancock made a brilliant capture at 4 o'clock this A. M., of an entire rebel division, including Maj. Gen. Ned Johnson commanding, Brig. Gen. Stuart and Brig. Gen Johnson, commanders of divisions and 2000 or 3000 prisoners and 2 batteries of 6 pieces each fell into our hands. Taking Advantage of the storm and darkness last evening Hancock managed to change his position unobserved by the enemy, and while darkness and fog still prevailed, pounced on them this morning yesterday was comparatively quiet, ing like a wolf on the fold. He took the captives completely by surprise. Having sent his prisoners securely to the rear, he turned their own guns on the enemy in the vicinity.

This all happened before nine A. M. Our later dispatches state that we have taken 10,000, prisoners, which we doubt, although it may be true, and we hope it is. The news on the whole is decidedly cheering. Lee would turn and fice to some other strong position, if Grant would only stop to bury his dead, and give him the opportunity. There is an improbably story affont that Lee has asked a cossation of hostilities long enough to bury his dead, and that Grant replies a la Fort Donelson that he hasn't time to bury his own dead, and that he intends to move immediately upon his works. If Lee asks any such favor it is only to gain time, a dodge that will not blind so shrowd a general as the hero of Vicksburg. Anothor rumor comes to us by the way of Philip ndelphin, that Lee has surrendered with 10,000 men. The story is of course a silly canard. Secretary Stanton sends word to Gov. Lewis that a dispatch has een received from Grant in which he says: "We have now ended the sixth day of very heavy lighting. The result to this ime is much in our favor. INSURE WITH THE MUTUAL LIFE INSU-RANCE COMPANY OF WISCONSIN—IT IS THE BEST COMPANY FOR WESTERN MEN!-The reasons why this is the best Company, are : That it is a Western Company, made up of and managed by Western men, doing all or nearly all its business in the Northwest, and concentrating in this one Company a superior class of risks, mostly of young mon, or men in the prime of life, and they selected with as great care in regard to eligibility to Life Insurance, as are the risks of any other company.

It is true that the Company has neither the age nor the accumulations of some custern companies, but is gaining the lattervery fast; is vigorous for one of Its age; is doing a large business, having 1ssued 637 policies in the months of December and January just passed, and is doing its business as economically as the same can bedone anywhere. It has for its guide, the experience of all older companies, and among its managers some of the best business men in the northwest.

This is the first successful effort ever made to build up a similar institution in the West, and it should be the pride, as it certainly is the interest, of every business man in this section of the State, to identify himself with its growth.

This Company issues non-forfeiting policies, upon which premiums are paid in live or ten annual payments. These nonforfeiting policies are very desirable, as they guarantee to the policy holder the benefit of all the money that he pays into the Company, and also enable him to pay his premiums for the whole of life while he is young, or at an early period, thus remendament of the constitution.

FOR SALE BY AUCTION

Will be sold by anotion, or Thursday the 23d of June Next, in the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin, thirty-oight hundred abd forty (0840) acres of the finest agricultural lands in the State. They are situated about ten inless from Janesville, and adjoining the village of Footville, with the Belout & Madison Rairroad ranning through them, and the Milwaukee & Southern Wisconsin Railroad on their border, and are composed of about an equal quantity of heavy "grove" traber and prairie. They were selected for their present owner for investment, nearly thirty years ago, as the best lands, in all respects, in Rock county, and this county, it is well known, is the garden of Wisconsin.

They will be sold in farm parcols, and the parchase money, less twenty or twenty-five per cont, which must be paid in cash, may remain on mortgage at seven per cent, interest, for seven or ten years, excepting timber lots which will be sold for cash.

There will also be sold at the same time and place, and in the same manner, but wholly for cash, twenty two ha died (2,200) acres of prime lands in Marathon county, near the lowe of Wanata, selected about eight years ugo.

county, the two lower of which, exercises to secure most destrable farms, or for the investment of capital, could not be offered.

Cheap, or Webber Reaper

Nothwithstanding the increase of nearly double in price over other years of all materials put in Recepers, we are going to sell for 1804 at Jabout the same prices has before. Our prices at he shop are $110 cash for, single Resper, for Resper and Mower $140. We are making Fifty Mowers, which will be warranted to do good work, they will be made of steel bars of the Buckeye pattern, except the hinges.

Those luying Respers alone can have Mowers the next year or thereafter for the same price, as the difference between reaper and mower.

We do not deem it necessary to extel our Reaper, for it is already known to be the only two-horse Reaper is use. Notwithstanding a great many are used with use. Notwithstanding a great many are used with two horses, they ought to use three or four, and some of them six, to be as easy to the horse as ours are to two ordinary horses.

Please send in your orders early to be sure of a ma-chine, as positively only one hundred of them will be built, and we will warrant each and every machine to EAST YONKERS, N. Y., WARRING DAY," April 18, 1864.

Friend Doty:

Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a compilete success. As it was before, it was the first machine that I could ever got countenanced. As it is now all agree that it is more convenient, and washing more clothes at once then the other. A little sim girl of ten years uses it; and an invalid bady, who has to sit down to work, can wash without fatigue.

You have wen blussings from all the women about this horse, be assured of that.
